Destiny Morrison is looking for love in all the wrong places. Unfortunately, she can't find it at home where she lives with an abusive grandmother, so she turns to the arms of Mario, a handsome hustler who may, or may not, have Destiny's best interest at heart.

Despite having dreams of being an architect, Destiny embraces the seedy underbelly of the Las Vegas lifestyle and hangs with a fast crowd who all appear to be going nowhere fast. After an assault, and an arrest on drug-related charges, can Destiny save herself from her own destructive choices, or will she follow in her mother's footsteps and become just another statistic?
