De Abiyán a Túnez (Spanish Edition) Mariama Ndoye

La guerra estalla en Costa de Marfil en 2002 y la sede del Banco Africano de Desarrollo se traslada temporalmente de Abiyán a Túnez. La familia Mbengue llega a su nuevo destino, una ciudad de clima más riguroso de lo esperado, en la que se evidencian las diferencias culturales entre africanos del Magreb y del sur del Sáhara y se respira cierta hostilidad hacia el recién llegado. Un nuevo entorno que da alas para indagar las costumbres tunecinas y, a la vez, hacer un alto y recordar los años pasados en Senegal y Costa de Marfil.

Historia de vida en la que se entremezclan recuerdos personales y reflexiones sobre la sociedad africana y la naturaleza humana. Diario de viaje, recetario de cocina, diálogo interior, paseo musical narrado desde la melancolía, el humor, el dolor y el amor. Un libro homenaje al fiel Billy, que acompañó a la autora en sus peregrinaciones y a cuya familia dedicó sus mejores años.
