It was time for Sami's yearly examination. I noticed as I placed him on the exam table he seemed a bit more nervous than normal. Each time any Tech would come into the room Sami would turn around and place his paws on my shoulders and bury his face into my chest or neck as if he were saying "If I can't see you, that means you can't see me . . . now GO AWAY!" Our new Vet came into the room and introduced herself. She was very young and so sweet. Sami didn't care how nice she was, she couldn't see him anyway, because according to his thinking . . . he was now invisible.
