Il tramonto delle aquile (Grande e piccola storia) (Italian Edition) Chiara Curione

Manfredi di Svevia, ultimo sovrano svevo del regno di Sicilia, racconta in prima persona le complesse e drammatiche vicende di cui fu protagonista, fino alla battaglia di Benevento, in cui perse la vita nel 1266, sconfitto da Carlo d'Angiò. Romanzo scorrevole, di buona scrittura, è adatto anche ad un pubblico giovane, ed ha il merito di avvicinare il lettore alla storia di un periodo complesso e travagliato, in cui il papato lotta per essere protagonista di primo piano, ed usa tutti gli strumenti, compreso quello della scomunica e il sostegno al partito guelfo, per tentare di avere ragione dei suoi avversari del partito ghibellino, di cui Manfredi è il capo riconosciuto. La documentazione attenta e accurata permette inoltre al lettore di immergersi nella vita quotidiana dell'epoca, ricostruita vividamente attraverso un'ambientazione convincente e di comprendere la mentalità medievale, le credenze, le abitudini, di un'epoca in cui affondano le radici del mondo moderno.
