Merecedor del Premio Bellas Artes Juan Rulfo para Primera Novela, La otra piel, es una novela de viaje y de introspección, a un tiempo histórica e intimista, en la que los secretos de una familia mexicana son la clave para descifrar el sentido de las comunas anarquistas del siglo XX. "Tu madre es Sophie Lenz. Vivió en Ascona": ésta es la confesión final del padre de Mirella, una historiadora del arte para quien la verdad sobre su origen marca el inicio de una búsqueda que la llevará a descubrir el ascenso y la decadencia de la comuna anarquista de Ascona, en Suiza. Mirella hallará, en su viaje alucinante, los rastros de todos aquellos que decidieron vivir al margen de la sociedad, huir de la alienación del cuerpo y del espíritu, cruzar las dóciles barreras que nos separan de nuestras pesadillas y nuestros más salvajes deseos de libertad, aunque esa posición radical conduzca a la pérdida, a la violencia y a la locura.
