101 Moments of Hope Edward Grinnan

When Edward began writing devotionals—these personal stories that share how he experiences his life on a daily basis from the perspective of faith—he found himself seeking spiritual lessons in daily living. The seeking enriched his soul and deepened his faith that God could touch any of us at any moment of our lives. With each story he writes, Edward learns something more about his relationship with God. He learns to ask, to seek, to wait, to listen, to trust, to love, to yield to God, and much more. While the four seasons bring change, readers will discover in these devotions hope that is changeless: God with us.
