El Mar Que Nos Rodea (Spanish Edition) Robert Friedman

Transcurre el año 2000 en Puerto Rico. Stevie Pérez y su novia Laura Rosario se han unido a una protesta de estudiantes contra los bombardeos de la Marina de Estados Unidos que han causado enfermedades, daños ambientales y muertes en la pequeña isla de Vieques. La brigada antidisturbios llega al campus para reprimir la protesta y con la consiguiente violencia, Laura recibe un disparo de bala y muere.

Un afligido Stevie promete mantener la memoria de Laura viva, creando una beca con su nombre. Sus intentos de conseguir fondos de la comunidad se ven frustrados y decide convertirse en una mula de drogas para conseguir el dinero para la beca. Luego de varios viajes lucrativos, queda en medio de una trampa. Su vida queda en peligro, y Stevie se ve forzado a escapar de la pandilla que lo persigue de el Bronx hasta San Juan y al pueblo en las montañas de Puerto Rico. En el camino, Stevie aprende duras verdades sobre la vida, el amor y las pérdidas.
