La media distancia (Spanish Edition) Alejandro Gándara

«Había vivido como había corrido, por la fuerza de la costumbre.» Un hombre corre e intenta ordenar su vida entre zancada y zancada. Lo que empezó como un arrebato de niño se ha convertido para Charro en un brillante futuro. Recién llegado a Madrid, tras fichar por un equipo de la capital, verá cómo la gloria del triunfo se funde con una realidad que comienza a deslizarse hacia el vacío. El desamor, las victorias a medias y las derrotas olvidadas forjarán en él la sensación de encontrarse en la mitad de todo y el inicio de nada. Charro tardará años en encontrar la paz de reconocerse en las distancias medias. Un sorprendente relato de la España de los años setenta que fue destacado como uno de los debuts más prometedores de la literatura española y que ya mostraban la heterodoxia y la brillantez de Alejandro Gándara. «La mejor novela que he leído en los últimos quince años en España. En cualquier país de Occidente podría servir como reflexión de esta época.» Juan Benet
