La Velada en Benicarló: Diario de la guerra de España (Literatura Reino de Cordelia nº 2) (Spanish Edition) Manuel Azaña, Isabelo, José Esteban

A principios de 1937, Manuel Azaña se ve obligado a recluírse en la sede del Parlamento catalán a causa de una revuelta interna republicana. Durante esos días escribe La velada en Benicarló, su testamento político publicado en 1939 simultáneamente en París y Buenos Aires. Consciente de que la guerra civil está ya perdida, Azaña busca sus causas en la identidad española y realiza un certero y brillante análisis sobre los errores cometidos por ambos bandos. Al mismo tiempo, lanza un canto en favor de la paz, consciente de que la violencia bélica hipotecará el desarrollo de España durante los siguientes 50 años. Esta edición, conmemorativa del 80 aniversario de la República y del 75 del inicio de la guerra civil, incluye un apéndice gráfico sobre la vida del propio Azaña.
