Growing up in France, I never realized how my favorite Jewish recipes could be so different than the ones in the USA. I had never heard of latkes or sufganiot, but I had a lot of different and delicious recipes that meant Hanukkah to me, that I would love to share. Don't let the words "French Cuisine" scare you though! These recipes are simple, healthy, and easy, but most importantly, strictly kosher. They are a great alternative for those who would love to try something original for Hanukkah or any other occasion.
