La Franja. De la experiencia universitaria al desafío del poder (Spanish Edition) Mónica Beltrán
Franja Morada es una de las escasas corrientes políticas juveniles que han perdurado a lo largo de décadas. Heredera de la Reforma de 1918, sobrevivió a persecuciones, dictaduras, purgas, defecciones, presiones, alianzas y rupturas.

Vanguardia del activismo político en el retorno de la democracia en 1983, fue puntal del montaje de la candidatura presidencial de Raúl Alfonsín, defensora ineludible de su gestión, y activa constructora de la Alianza que llevó a Fernando de la Rúa al gobierno. Varios de los jóvenes franjistas más conspicuos ocuparon puestos de gobierno en ambos gobiernos, y muchos diputados, senadores e intendentes de la actualidad, recibieron su bautismo militante en la Franja.

Franja Morada conduce la Federación Universitaria Argentina desde los setenta hasta el presente. Esa fuerte inserción entre el estudiantado es, seguramente, una de las razones que explican su supervivencia tras las dos bancarrotas presidenciales del radicalismo.
