Making Your Church a House of Healing Michael Gemignani

Author, pastor, and spiritual director Michael Gemignani affirms that Jesus Christ established the church primarily as an instrument of spiritual healing. Each local congregation, as the Body of Christ on earth, should, therefore, have spiritual healing as the focus of its ministry. In this practical resource, explore the key questions of What is spiritual healing and why is it so important? If my church wants to become deeply involved in spiritual healing, how should we go about it? What obstacles are we likely to encounter and how might we overcome them? Includes questions for small-group discussion and congregational action.
