Marissa can make any man her sex slave with a single kiss. But sex without love has begun to feel empty, turning her magical gift into a curse. The only way to get rid of it is with a counter-spell from her family's spell book. Unfortunately, a rival witch has stolen it. To get it back, Marissa accepts the witch's challenge. She must make a man fall in love with her without using her power.

Justin has always been attracted to Marissa but has kept his distance because he knows she's trouble. He has seen her with a different man every night, and when she puts the moves on him, he's determined not to become just another conquest.

Marissa must learn what true love really means in order to convince Justin she's more than a seductress. And Justin is just the man to teach her.
