This is arguably Philip Melancthon's most important work. Anyone interested in the history of the Lutheran Reformation will find that this book, the first Lutheran work of "systematic theology," is presented in a very lively, accessible English translation, with extensive, helpful footnotes that explain the people and concepts used by Melancthon to explain the Gospel.

Features

- Clear English translation
- Scripture index
- Index of subjects and names
- Extensive historical introduction by translator Dr. Christian Preus
- Extensive footnotes explaining terminology, history, and theology
