Las variaciones Bradshaw (Spanish Edition) Rachel Cusk

Con siete novelas, Rachel Cusk es ya una de las mejores novelistas británicas de nuestros días. Su valentía, sentido del humor y originalidad la han convertido en un referente ineludible.

Las variaciones Bradshaw es, sin ninguna duda, su mejor y más ambiciosa novela hasta la fecha. Como siempre, Cusk indaga en las relaciones sentimentales y familiares con una lucidez hiriente. Aquí, el protagonista es un matrimonio que ha decidido trastocar las posiciones tradicionales: Thomas Bradshaw deja su trabajo para cuidar de su hija Alexa y se dedica a tocar el piano, una práctica que parece llenar el súbito vacío de su mediana edad. Su elección irrita tanto a sus padres como a sus suegros. En cambio, su intensa mujer, Tonie, ha aceptado un absorbente trabajo en la Universidad, apartándose así de la vida doméstica y reecontrando aspectos y modos de vida que creía perdidos.

A lo largo de un año lleno de crisis y revelaciones, asistimos a los avatares de Thomas, Tonie, sus hermanos y familiares: Howard, el mayor y más exitoso hermano y su gregaria mujer, Claudia y Leo, inseguro y casado con la lenguaaz y alcohólica Susie. Y en la cúspide la pirámide, los padres de Thomas, los viejos Bradshaw, prosiguen su erosionante y tensa vida marital.

Con una estructura que recuerda a las famosas variaciones Goldberg de Bach, Rachel Cusk recorre virtuosamente las escalas de las relaciones de los Bradshaw hasta construir una partitura hecha de azares, decisiones, errores, amores y desecuentros que dan una imagen de la vida familiar como una variación sobre un tema de la infancia.
