La casa (Heroes) (Italian Edition) Angela Bubba

Come disse Corrado Alvaro, “la forza della Calabria è nella sua struttura familiare”. La famiglia è spinta vitale, il campo del suo genio, il suo dramma e la sua poesia. I figli rappresentano un continuo atto di fede nella vita, una promessa e una speranza, una forza che deve correggere il destino individuale dei padri. A Petronà, un freddo e screpolato solco della Calabria, vive la famiglia Manfredi: il padre Anselmo e la madre Lia, le quattro figlie Maria, Pina, Mina e Aurora, e l'unico figlio maschio Benio. La casa è il teatro delle loro storie, fatto di nascite, morti, riti, preghiere, petrosi silenzi e baraaonde domestiche, di parole strane e fantasiose che rotolano veloci dalle bocche, di un Sud che sembra immaginato ma che in realtà è verissimo. L'esordiente Angela Bubba, vent'anni appena, con una scrittura vitale e sorprendente, inzuppata di un dialetto che prende l'energia di una lingua nuova, racconta in modo epico e poetico la storia di una famiglia calabrese, spassosa e infernale, piena di uomini scriteriati e molli, “dagli occhi stretti e vinosi”, di donne antiche e virili, primordialmente femminili, che arrivano da un passato favoloso come attraverso una seduta spiritica. La casa è un'orchestra di voci, cadenze, urla, pianti, rimbrotti, un'animata e stupefacente concertazione.
