Irán (2005-2013) (Ciencias Políticas) (Spanish Edition) María Jesús Merinero Martín

Esta obra analiza los cambios, permanencias y paradojas que supuso la presidencia de Ahmadineyad entre 2005 y 2013, y se explica la razón de ser de las expectativas de cambio creadas por el inicio de las negociaciones internacionales sobre “la cuestión nuclear” desde la llegada a la presidencia de la República de su sucesor Hasan Rohani.

Para comprender las dinámicas que recorren la República Islámica de Irán, se hacía imprescindible, además, analizar pormenorizadamente otros factores que caracterizan su devenir sociopolítico: las assabiyyas, o redes clientelares entre la dirección interna del país, y la autonomía, combatividad y poder catalizador de la sociedad iraní, actor insoslayable en la evolución del país.

No obstante, algunos desafíos siguen vigentes. ¿Se aproxima la instauración del Estado de derecho?, ¿podrá Irán cumplir su objetivo histórico de ser una respetada gran potencia regional?
