SECRETS FOR THE LAST FUNCTIONAL FAMILY IN AMERICA

Think the country's messed up these days? Imagine what it'll be like when our leaders are from the current generation of entitled, impatient, disrespectful, whiny, overindulged, lazy kids being raised to exploit their 15 minutes of infamy for as long as possible. You can continue to throw your hands up in frustration and defeat, half-hoping you're not around to see the day when the Sheen/Lohan ticket has a mandate to run the nation. Or you can suck it up and reclaim your capacity to parent. Letters From Home lays out a bold, no-nonsense approach to raising grateful kids who aspire to something higher than behaving badly on a reality show, actually talk to you in person instead of texting your phone, and understand that the world revolves around something other than them.

David and Andrea Reiser are proud to contribute 100% of royalties from the publication of this book: 50% will support breast cancer research at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center (mskcc.org) and FORCE (facingourrisk.org); and the other 50% will help end childhood hunger in American through Share Our Strength (strength.org).
