A Day With No Crayons Elizabeth Rusch

When Liza's mother takes away her beloved crayons, her world suddenly goes gray. How does the budding artist repond? She squirts her toothpaste angrily and stomps through mud puddles. Through these acts, Liza inadvertently creates art--and eventually discovers color in the world around her. Liza loved her crayons. She treasured turquoise, adored apricot, and flipped over fuchsia. In this enhanced version, enjoy read-along, fun animations that bring the story to life, and a coloring activity at the end of the book!
